Costa Daurada

DTF: Cambrils, Salou, Vila-seca La Pineda Platja, Calafell

From calm to adventure Visitors to the Costa Daurada for the first time soon discover why the Romans chose these lands to expand their empire two thousand years ago. Under a sky of “never-ending spring”, as those ancient settlers called it, the Tarragona coast offers miles of beaches and a full and varied agenda in terms of culture, sport, food and leisure which makes it an ideal place to spend holidays with the family.

Du calme à l'aventure Ceux qui visitent la Costa Daurada pour la première fois comprendront vite pourquoi les Romains, il y a deux mille ans, ont choisi ce territoire pour élargir leur empire. Sous un ciel « continuellement printanier », comme le définirent ces anciens habitants, le littoral de Tarragone propose des kilomètres de plages et une grande offre culturelle, sportive, gastronomique et de loisirs qui en font un endroit idéal pour les vacances en famille.

Von der Ruhe bis zum Abenteuer Wer die Costa Daurada zum ersten Mal besucht, wird bald entdecken, warum die Römer diese Region vor zweitausend Jahren wählten, um ihr Reich auszudehnen. Unter einem Himmel „des ständigen Frühlings“, wie dies die Siedler in der Antike ausdrückten, liegen an dieser Küste Kilometer an Stränden. Auch das Kultur-, Sport-, Gastronomie- und Freizeitangebot ist sehr umfangreich, was diese Region zu einem idealen Reiseziel für die ganze Familie macht.

Costa Barcelona

DTF: Calella, Pineda de Mar, Santa Susanna, Malgrat de Mar.

Tradition and closeness Located between the Mediterranean and the pre-coastal hills, very near to the city of Barcelona, Maresme is one of the areas with the most deeply-rooted tourist tradition in Catalonia. It's therefore not surprising that this long stretch of coast contains a great number of accredited accommodation and restaurant facilities, as well as four of the thirteen Catalan towns recognised as family holiday destinations.

Tradition et proximité Situé entre la Méditerranée et les chaînes montagneuses pré littorales, à proximité de la ville de Barcelone, le Maresme est une des zones les plus ancrées dans la tradition touristique de la Catalogne. Il n'est donc pas étonnant que cette longue région côtière héberge une grande concentration d'établissements de logements accrédités ainsi que quatre des municipalités catalanes reconnues comme destinations de tourisme en famille.

Tradition und Nähe Die Region Maresme, zwischen dem Mittelmeer und den Bergketten vor der Küste und in der Nähe von Barcelona gelegen, ist eines der ältesten Tourismusgebiete in Katalonien. Deshalb ist es auch nicht verwunderlich, dass sich an diesem langen Küstenabschnitt zahlreiche angesehene Hotel- und Gaststättenbetriebe befinden, und auch vier der katalanischen Gemeinden, die mit dem Gütesiegel Reiseziele für Familien (RZF) ausgezeichnet sind.

Costa Brava

DTF: Blanes, Lloret de Mar, Calonge - Sant Antoni, Torroella de Montgrí - l'Estartit i Roses.

A burst of colour next to the beach The more than 100 years of the name "Costa Brava" bear witness to the impeccable tourist tradition of the Girona coast. Its picturepostcard towns and its coves and beaches surrounded by pine trees are the best-known part of a long and varied list of attractions, to which must be added a wide range of accommodation and restaurants aimed at family tourism. This area of specialisation has five FHD certificates.

Une explosion de couleurs sur la plage Les plus de 100 ans de l'appellation « Costa Brava » témoignent de la tradition touristique incontestable du littoral de Gérone. Ses villages de ca te postale ainsi que ses criques et ses plages entourées de pins sont les éléments les plus connus de sa longue liste d'attractions, à laquelle s'ajoute une offre complète de logements et de restaurants destinés au tourisme familial. Ce tourisme spécifique jouit de cinq villes certifiées DTF.

Ein Ausbruch an Farben direkt am Strand Die Touristenmarke „Costa Brava“ existiert praktisch schon seit über hundert Jahren und beweist die lange touristische Tradition dieses Abschnitts der Küste Gironas. Die Dörfer sind malerisch schön und die wundervollen Buchten und Strände von Kiefernwäldern umgeben. Sie bilden nur einen Teil der zahlreichen Sehenswürdigkeiten und Touristenattraktionen, die noch durch ein umfassendes Angebot an Unterkunftsmöglichkeiten und Restaurants für die ganze Familie ergänzt werden. Zurzeit gibt es an der Costa Brava fünf als Reiseziele für Familien zertifizierte Gemeinden.
