URBAN CATALONIA

One of the most visited urban areas of Europe and a major world destination for conferences and events, boasting over 2,000 years of history, Catalonia's four largest cities offer a wide range of spaces and activities, ranging from the most traditional and historical to the most avant-garde and contemporary.

MEDITERRANEAN COAST

From the Cap de Creus in the north, to the Delta de l'Ebre in the south, over 500 km of coastline make Catalonia an ideal destination to look out to sea., with sandy beaches, steep hills that lead to hidden coves and cliffs and charming towns that attract artists, intellectuals and tourists from around the world. Just a few miles from the sea, the medieval towns of Empordà, the wines of Penedès and Priorat and the infrastructure and facilities of Vallès make a stunning contrast for the natural beauty of the countryside.

PYRENEES

The impressive Pyrenees provide a natural border of more than 3,000 metres with France. Valleys and lakes in natural parks of extreme beauty, the largest being the national park of Aigüestortes i Estany de Sant Maurici. From the volcanic area of Garrotxa to Val d'Aran, the area provides spectacular opportunities for sport and adventure activities in the open air.

INLAND COUNTRYSIDE

The countryside in inland Catalonia are well known for their rich natural heritage, present in the region's plains and mountains, and also its strong industrial and agricultural tradition that has provided a boost to the economic over the centuries. Historic towns like Vic, Manresa and Cardona have advanced and modernised themselves, without losing sight of their traditions, and can be found next to emblematic countryside such as Montserrat and Montseny.

A mountain experience for everyone

The impressive Pyrenees, a unique environment which caters for all preferences, Catalonia's expansive northern fringe stretching from the volcanoes of the Garrotxa to the Romanesque churches of the Valle de Boí which have been named UNESCO heritage sites. A region which is still dominated by peaks, valleys, rivers, meadows and fir trees, during any time of the year, the Pyrenees provide the setting for a wide range of activities during corporate and incentive trips – whether it be ski resorts at Catalonia's highest geographical point, aquatic activities in an Olympic canal or in internationally renowned rivers such as the Noguera Pallaresa, quality hiking trails in a stunning mountain setting. Not to mention the traditional, rural and diverse nature of Pyrenees cuisine.

Excellent transport and the quality of the tourism services on offer – accommodation, food, the region's natural and historical heritage and its monuments, and also its explosive natural heritage – make for an ideal environment for any corporate meeting or event.

Relaxation – escape – and finding yourself. These experiences, and many others can be found in this stunning region of Spain.

Our range of activities

in Pyrenees

GARROTXA EXTREM

With this experience, you will put many of your skills to the test, including coordination, communication, companionship, leadership, cohesion, initiative and improvisation, by sharing a few intense days of team-based self-improvement tests: scavenger hunts, outings, cookery workshops, 4x4 tours, artistic activities, etc. Are you daring enough to give it a go?

DOWNHILL MOUNTAIN BIKING

Get your adrenaline rush and enjoy the best views of the Vall de Camprodon by doing downhill mountain biking, starting from a point near the top of the valley. After the descent, you will be able to get your strength back with a gastronomic meal.

GARROTXA INSPIRATION

Share strategies and enhance your team relationships in a unique setting that encourages you and others to engage in dialogue, an aspect of our lives that is so often overlooked. Enjoy a meal up in the air while taking a hot air balloon flight over the volcanoes you have just visited, venture into the world of geocaching... and take time to think!

WORLD HERITAGE ROMANESQUE

Visit the Vall de Boí Romanesque heritage site and discover every detail first-hand. Eight churches and one hermitage have been catalogued by UNESCO as World Heritage since 2000.

MOUNTAIN SKIING

With mountain skiing and snowshoeing, you will discover the vast expanses of forest and the magnificent landscapes surrounding Vall de Núria, and learn to interpret the fauna and flora. In addition, you will be able to do walks of varying levels of difficulty with a team of qualified mountain guides.

ARCHERY

Besides having fun, doing this sport will help you reach profound levels of relaxation, peace and tranquillity. After the first introductory lesson, you will be able to go into the forest and enjoy one of the best routes with 3D silhouettes of animals.

LEGENDS FROM FANTASTICAL CERDANYA

Discover magical places in Vall de la Llosa through explanations given by fantastical characters: the devil, the water lady, the witch, the wolf, etc.

With this game, you will journey through the county of Cerdanya in a fun, creative way while getting to know its essence, history and legends with the aid of new technologies: to know where to go, you will have to follow the GPS coordinates shown on an iPad. In places of historical or cultural interest, a video is activated and a character appears, who will tell you about their history and direct you to the next location, and so on.

FLYING OVER VOLCANOES IN A HOT AIR BALLOON

Fly over the Garrotxa Volcanic Zone Natural Park in a hot air balloon! After helping to assemble the hot air balloon, you will take off for a flight lasting 1 hour 30 minutes with cava to sip on and a Catalan sweet pastry called coca de llardons to nibble on. When you land, you can look forward to a hearty brunch consisting of the following Catalan delicacies: cob loaf, cold meats and Santa Pau beans and sausage.

The hot air balloons have doors and are therefore accessible to all.

GARROTXA MOTIVATES

Do you want to develop teamwork skills in a unique, incomparable setting? Make gains on human capital and become aware of your own potential by discovering the Garrotxa Volcanic Zone Natural Park by enjoying the most intimate charm, eating in a crater, and so on. You will be motivated!

PENINSULAR WAR SITES

Serra de Busa, an isolated and impregnable high plain surrounded by crags, was the site chosen by Captain General of Catalonia Luis de Lacy for the creation of a recruitment and training centre. A thousand houses were built to accommodate 8,000 rearguard resistance soldiers and, after Cadiz, it was the first place on the Iberian Peninsula where the 1812 Constitution was proclaimed. Enjoy a historical adventure with an experiential itinerary and discover the details of this episode of history in situ while doing team-based activities like hiking, archery, orienteering, kayaking, building with ropes, and so on.

Take the Plunge

RAVINE DESCENTS

Wend your way along a riverbed by combining swimming, potholing and climbing techniques to overcome the route's natural obstacles. Jump into a pool, abseil, descend using ropes or nothing at all! There are ravines and gorges with very different features, suited to all levels and offering sensations that are very different too.

HYDROSPEED

Ride a bodyboard down a raging river! After a mini-course, you will squeeze into a very thick reinforced wetsuit, slip on some flippers and hold onto a Hydrospeed flotation board, which will come down to your waist. Then you will be ready for a fun, exhilarating and safe descent!

CANOEING

In a specially designed canoe, sail down stretches of flat waters and rapids, surrounded by lush riparian forests. You will also be able to do canoeing at the Seu d'Urgell Olympic facilities, on either a white-water or a flat-water canal.

HUMAN CLUEDO

With this version of the well-known table game, you will actively and personally take part in the investigation. With your team or investigator squad, you will look for a series of clues enabling you to uncover the thief, the stolen object or objects, the victim and the swag. During the game, physical and intellectual teamwork skills, received or gathered information classification and observation aptitudes, and time-specific leadership abilities, etc. will be revealed.

COOKING TEAM

Preparing a meal with your group, you will create a cohesive, integrated team capable of making a delicious, gastronomic recipe. The lunch or dinner afterwards will go beyond social or cultural barriers and differences, and is a natural formula for motivation. With your team, you will have fun while experientially learning basic concepts of the world of work and business through techniques such as communication, interactive collaboration, personal cooperation, leadership, courtesy and smartness.

MAKING YOGHURT

Discover the biggest dairy in Garrotxa! Surrounded by forests and volcanoes, you will enjoy a unique experience and learn about a project that is drawing everyone's attention. You will see the cows being bred, the pre-birthing room, the calves and the milking room. In the factory, will be able to see how milk is transformed into yoghurt and desserts, as well as the various production and fermentation processes. At the end of the tour, you can look forward to a dairy product tasting.

Val d'Aran

The Atlantic valley of the Pyrenees

The Val d'Aran: a natural environment where, all year round, you can find all forms of entertainment available from a mountain destination.

The combination of infrastructure that meets the most stringent of standards in Europe, and also a modern cosmopolitan society, which has preserved the essence of the past, its ancient culture and its natural heritage, making it a first-class tourist destination.

In an almost unrivalled natural environment, the Val d'Aran, with its first-class hotel and tourism services, can provide all services, facilities and attractions for organising your meetings and incentive trips in a mountain landscape environment.

Our range of activities

in Val d'Aran

HELI-SKIING AT FIRST HAND

Hop on a helicopter that will bring you to the top of the mountains of the Val d'Aran to enjoy the best off-piste skiing. You will round it off with a typical Aranese lunch and a visit to a cheesemongers with the Val d'Aran certification of origin.

SNOWSHOEING OUTING

If walking and communing with nature is your thing, our guides will escort you on a snowshoeing outing and will bring you to places awaiting discovery.

Snow shoes are the ideal medium for walking on snow.

* Full-day or half-day outings can be organised.

MUSHING

By day or by night, discover the Val d'Aran in a dog sled like a real polar explorer! Enjoy this experience at first hand, relishing the white Pyrenean landscape, feeling the wind in your face and the silence of the mountains, interrupted only by the sound of the sleigh gliding over the snow.

The activity length can be adapted and lunch can also be arranged.

SNOWMOBILE OUTING

Discover the sensation of freedom and speed yielded by a snowmobile through the idyllic landscapes offered by the snowy mountains and forests of the Val d'Aran. Each outing is led by a guide-escort and the easy manoeuvring of the snowmobiles makes this experience one that can be enjoyed by all.

* The activity length can be adapted and lunch and night outings can also be arranged.

PEDALS OF FIRE

Venture to travel around the perimeter of the Aigüestortes i Estany de Sant Maurici Natural Park on a mountain bike. You will just have to enjoy the cycle and everything that the Pyrenean valleys offer you: the landscape, the cuisine, the cultural heritage and the people. You can follow the circuit adapting it to your level, from the easiest version in six stages and escorted by a guide, to the challenge of doing it in three days and without any assistance!

ROUTE ON HORSEBACK

A perfect plan combining adventure and relaxation in the Val d'Aran. Ride on horseback through the depths of the valley accompanied by qualified and experienced instructors, feeling safe and enjoying every minute of this experience. Durations of up to two days, including meals and board.

* Available from May to October.

CAVIAR TASTING

The only place with a culture and leisure activity linked to the production of caviar and sturgeon meat. You will find out about sturgeon and its roe, its history, the dangers that pose a threat to it and, naturally, its gastronomy and trade. And we will conclude with a tasting of this precious delicacy!

RAFTING

This activity will begin with some technical explanations on safety, how to paddle and how to act on the descent, as well as some warm-up exercises. You will then be ready to enjoy the descent through water with soft rapids, jumps, slides and a magnificent canyon, which will afford you unrivalled sensations. The descent will come to an end in the village of Bossòst.

TORAN VALLEY

Discover the lush black pine forests of the Val d'Aran with this tour on foot or by 4x4 through small Aranese villages, heading upriver and entering the forests of the Pièrres mountains to get to the small village of Bordius and end in Bossòst.

ROMANESQUE ROUTE

Discover this Romanesque route in the Val d'Aran, comprising 15 churches. The churches in this Pyrenean valley stand out on account of their beauty and their surroundings; decorated in a sculptural manner, they are a small part of the artistic heritage offered by the region.

HIKING

Discover the spectacular mountain trails of the Val d'Aran, where the influence of man is reduced to a minimum; you will gain an insight into the flora, fauna and geology characteristic of the valley and its surroundings.

* Several possible durations and levels of difficulty, adapted to all levels.

Some activity proposals presented in the Pyrenees section are located less than 30 minutes away; therefore, they can also be accessed from the Val d'Aran.
